MEDICINAL.

Love is sometimes a hard taskmaster. He drives women to tasks beyond their strength and lays heavy burdens on their shoulders. Love of husband, love of family, forces many a woman day by day to labor for the home when aching back and throbbing head make her utterly unfit for household duties.

Weak, nervous women suffer from headache, backache, bearing-down pains and other consequences of womanly disease, can be completely cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"About two years ago I was taken sick and it seemed as if I had no nerves at all," writes Mrs. T. Woodbeck, of Delray, Mich. "I could not work an hour in the day without being tired out. I doctored first with one physician, then with another, but did not receive any benefit. One would say one thing and the next something else. I had almost given up when I thought your medicine might help me, so I wrote to you asking what to do. You advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I did so and could see a difference right away. I only took four bottles in all and felt better than I had in a long time. Can work all day now and not feel tired as I would in an hour before taking your treatment. I think it is the only medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure dizziness and sick headache.

NOTABLE DEMOCRATS SPEAK.

United democracy marching to success in 1904 under the leadership of Grover Cleveland, the errors and misdeeds of the Roosevelt administration furnishing the issues, was the picture drawn for the party leaders at the banquet given under Tammany auspices in New York last night in honor of the newly installed mayor, George B. McClellan.

Hon. Richard Olney, in a notable address, arraigned the administration's policy at home and abroad, and, after enumerating the principles which the democracy should stand for, closed with the declaration that Grover Cleveland was the man of all men most thoroughly representative of the national policies which the speaker had indicated.

David B. Hill's speech consisted largely of a bitter attack upon President Roosevelt's policy in Panama, his treatment of Gen. Miles, his attitude regarding army promotions, and a scathing criticism of his public utterances and writings.

In the course of Mr. Hill's remarks he said: "The Cleveland administrations of 1885 and 1893 may have made mistakes, but to their credit be it said there was never any charge of corruption seriously made against them, and none at all was ever established. Those administrations may have sometimes erred, because to err is human, but whatever their faults, corruption was not one of them. They may have lacked in rigorous partisanship, but they excelled in genuine patriotism. Those administrations were conducted with dignity and reflected honor upon the country."

Democrats of prominence from New York city, State, and nation assembled at Sherry's, among those present besides Messrs. Olney and Hill being Congressman David De Armond, of Missouri; Charles A. Towne, ex-Senator from Minnesota; ex-Gov. R. E. Pattison, of Pennsylvania; William A. Gaston, of Boston, and Charles F. Murphy, now leader of Tammany Hall, Grover Cleveland, Judge Alton B. Parker, Senator Arthur P. Gorman, of Maryland, and Senator John P. Morgan, of Alabama, sent letters of regret.

Mr. Cleveland's letter follows: "I very much regret that a vexatious indisposition prevents me from attending the dinner tendered by the citizens of New York to their newly elected mayor, Hon. George B. McClellan. As a former resident of the city, still interested in all that pertains to its welfare, I would be pleased to participate in an event which will give opportunity for the expression of a well grounded anticipation of the civic benefits which should result from the triumph of the New York democracy. With the assumption of the duty involved in the government of the greatest city of our country, creates grave responsibilities, the impressive thought cannot be evaded, that the manner in which the democracy of the city shall meet its municipal responsibilities will, in a large degree, determine the extent to which our fellow countrymen, in every part of the land, will be willing to trust the democracy of the nation in broader fields of governmental rule. Those far beyond the limit of New York who love the democratic party, confidently expect that the methods of the new municipal administration will be so clean and efficient, and its high purposes so manifest in all things, as to impress the entire country with the purity and peace promised by the national supremacy of a safe and conservative democracy."

The speakers included Mayor McClellan, Richard Olney, David B. Hill, Charles A. Towne, Gov. Montague, of Virginia, and Congressman De Armond. Ex-Congressman W. Bourke Cockran, acted as toastmaster.

Gov. A. J. Montague, of Virginia, said in part:

"At this period in our party affairs the South comes forward as the champion of no candidate; but it is to be hoped that she will come forward in a spirit of co-operative leadership for the pronouncement of such principles and measures as may victoriously rehabilitate our party and give to a people's government a people's rule. I venture the opinion that the South should not indifferently wait upon a policy of negotiation of the slow-moving tides of public opinion, or make paramount in anticipation the availability of candidates; but she should affirmatively stand forth in behalf of the established and conservative principles of democracy. She should not only ask but demand that issues which are dead should not be stirred up for our undoing. She should take the initiative in the recrudescence of our party upon the principles which heretofore and for so long led us to victory and to the people's service. And the South should do this not as a section, but as an integral part of our union, with an affectionate interest in its welfare, growth, and glory. Nor does the South direct the consideration of the country to a candidate, but she should declare that he be a pure-minded patriot, a clean public servant, courageous but not venturesome; zealous but not picturesque; sober in judgment but not fanatical in faith. With such a candidate supporting a conservative and just policy for a sane and safe people we may see coming to every fireside and to every hand an equality of opportunity and of right and of duty, the Republic's best gifts."

The following message, was received from Mr. W. J. Bryan when the steamer Celtic was off the Nova Scotian Coast, read:

"William J. Bryan sends greetings to the democrats assembled at Sherry's. I wish you a happy New Year, and hope you will have a brilliant success. My heart is with you. Do not forget the Western democrat who polled 6,500,000 votes in 1900."

Tremendous applause followed the reading of Mr. Bryan's words.

Croup.

The peculiar cough which indicates croup is usually well known to the mothers of croupy children. No time should be lost in the treatment of it, and for this purpose no medicine has received more universal approval than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Do not waste valuable time in experimenting with untried remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended, but give this medicine as directed and all symptoms of croup will quickly disappear. For sale by Richard Gibson.

Exposure to a sudden climatic change produces cold in the head and catarrh is apt to follow. Provided with Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh. Price 50 cents at druggists or Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation, cleanses and cures Cream Balm quickly cures the cold.

Domestic Troubles.

It is exceptional to find a family where there are no domestic ruptures occasionally, but these can be lessened by having Dr. King's New Life Pills around. Much trouble they save by their great work in Stomach and Liver troubles. They not only relieve you, but cure, 25c, at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

What's In a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to Witch Hazel Salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co., of Chicago, discovered some years ago how to make a salve from Witch Hazel that is a specific for Piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises, and all skin diseases DeWitt's Salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Sold by all druggists.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS.

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success.
